BIOGRAPHY

Based in the Washington, D.C. Metropolitan area, Pablo Antonio y La Firma was founded in late 1999. It is an 11 piece Latin band specializing in tropical rhythms including Merengue, Salsa, Cumbia and Bachata. Their forte is Merengue. The band is made up of talented musicians from different parts of the world including North and Central America and the Caribbean. Having musicians from different countries has allowed Pablo Antonio y La Firma's music, original or not, to be liked and enjoyed by people of all nationalities in the Washington, D.C., metropolitan area as well as other cities they have visited. This combination makes Pablo Antonio y La Firma a unique band because each of the musicians is able to incorporate his own flavor and style into the music the band plays.

The band's repertoire consists of original material as well as cover songs from many of today's most popular artists in the genres previously mentioned. In 2000, Pablo Antonio y La Firma released their first independently produced compact disc which is available for purchase on the internet, selected stores and live performances. As of October 5, 2007, Pablo Antonio y La Firma fans have been enjoying the latest installment of their music. The newly released "Mi Princesa" CD includes two tracks which were recorded at Jampr Studios in Bayamón, Puerto Rico and produced by three time Grammy winning producer Freddie Méndez who has worked with great Merengue artists such as Elvis Crespo, Grupo Manía and Tonny Tún Tún among others. Working with a Grammy winning Producer was a major accomplishment for Pablo Antonio y La Firma.

Since its inception, Pablo Antonio y La Firma has been one of the most respected bands in the DC area due to their punctuality, professionalism and music quality. These qualities have allowed them the opportunity to participate in important festivals such as Calle Ocho in Miami as well as other events throughout the country. One of the biggest achievements has been staying together as a band for nearly a decade. This has been possible due to the fact that they all get along as if they were family. They enjoy what we do and project that joy on stage.

Pablo Antonio y La Firma has had the privilege to perform for various charitable organizations/events which is something that is very important to them as they want to give back to their community whenever possible since it is the people who keep them where they are. They have also had the opportunity to play on the same stage as big name artists and have gone as far as accompanying them. Most importantly, they have earned the love and admiration of their fans which is something that every artist strives for. For your next event, don't think twice book them and you won't be disappointed!
